Career Path:

Dream Big. Lead the Market.

Can you see your future career in high definition? Whether you envision yourself managing a global investment fund, spearheading massive urban development projects, or founding the next breakthrough PropTech startup, this is where your vision becomes reality.

This Double Major program offers a unique and essential integration of two of the most sought-after fields in business. Our curriculum bridges them perfectly, providing you with the dual expertise needed to dominate the market.

This program is tailored for English speakers interested in studying real estate, finance, and investment, and who plan to live or invest globally. We provide the strategic toolkit to lead in both the local and international arenas.

Program Overview: Theory, Practice, and Impact

From Vision to Impact

This B.A. in Business Administration provides the strategic toolkit needed to navigate the complex global landscape. The program uniquely combines rigorous financial training with in-depth real estate studies, offering a natural and essential integration of these two fields.

Students gain analytical and practical tools in finance, investment, planning, and regulation, developing expertise aligned with their professional focus. As the only program in Israel of its kind, it offers newcomers a first-class education and unique access to the local ecosystem for an exciting career.

Three Great Reasons to Study at Ono International School:

- ✓ Dream Big, Practice Bigger: Ono provides the theoretical depth and hands-on learning needed to turn your career vision into reality. Imagine yourself leading in global markets as you integrate into top real estate and finance companies in Israel and abroad.
- ✓ Personal Mentorship for Future Leaders: Achieve your big goals with small class sizes, individual guidance, and a supervised practicum designed to build your professional confidence.
- ✓ Global Vision, Local Impact: Experience "The Best of Both Worlds". Build your network alongside Israeli and international students, immersing yourself in Israel's vibrant campus life while preparing to lead on a global scale.
