

Attorney Dr. Amal Jabareen

Formal Education

- 2004 Ph.D. in Law, Bar-Ilan University
- 1992 Diploma in International Commerce
- 1989 M.Sc., Computer Engineering, major in systems analysis

Employment

- 2004 to present Faculty member, Ono Academic College
- 2006 to present Lecturer, Institute of Continuing Legal Education, the Israel Bar Association.
- 2005 to present External lecturer, School of Law, Bar-Ilan University
- 2000 to present External lecturer, Netanya Academic College
- 1994-2000 Economist, Bank Leumi Le'yisrael
- 1988-1989 Research assistant, Technion Israel Institute of Technology

Courses and Fields:

Property Law

Torts

Basic Issues in Internet Law

Seminar in Law and Internet

Publications and Articles Accepted for Publication:

1. Jabareen, A. "The Function of Law in Organizing the Internet from the Perspective of an Economic Approach to Law." Kiryat Hamishpat Law Review 7 [in Hebrew].
2. Jabareen, A. "The Responsibility of Virtual Malls from the Perspective of an Economic Analysis of Law." Law Studies 25 [in Hebrew].
3. Jabareen, A. & Kleinman, R. "Transfer of Ownership in ECommerce Transactions From the Perspective of Jewish Law in Light of Israeli and American Law," in Judaism and Economics, part of the series Handbooks on Economics. Oxford University Press.
4. Jabareen, A. (2010). "Personal Information as an Asset." Ma'aznei Mishpat 7 [in Hebrew.]

5. Jabareen, A. "On Economics and the Law of Ownership regarding Personal Information: The Responsibility Websites for Damaging User Content in the Web 2.0 Era." Kiryat Hamishpat Law Review [in Hebrew].
6. Jabareen, A. "Ownership of and Commerce in Medical Information." Law, Medicine and Bioethics [in Hebrew].

Participation in Conferences (partial listing)

1. Conference of the Israeli Association for Law and Economics, Ono Academic College (06/07), subject: Virtual malls as gatekeepers of e-commerce from an economic perspective.
2. Conference in honor of the retirement of President Aaron Barak, Ono Academic College (06/07), subject: Consumers' right to equality in the price of the products.
3. Private Law Conference, Bar-Ilan University (10/06), subject: The date the transfer of ownership of consumer transactions.
4. E-commerce Conference, Hebrew University (04/09), subject: Responsibility of websites for harmful content.
5. Conference on freedom of expression on the Internet, University of Jordan (05/09), subject: freedom of expression on the Internet in Israel.
6. Trademark Conference, University of Lausanne (08/08), subject: Trademarks from the perspective of Islamic law.
7. Conference on Intellectual Property, Al-Najah University (11/09) subject: Copyrights in Israeli law.
8. Conference of the Israeli Association for Law and Economics, Bar-Ilan University (06/09), subject: Responsibility of websites for harmful content from an economic perspective.
9. Conference on Trademarks, Ono Academic College (07/08), subjects: Trademarks in the Internet age.
10. Conference for Law and Genetics, Ono Academic College (10/09), subject: Property-oriented reading of the Genetic Information Law.
11. Annual Meeting of the Bar Association (05/08), subject: Protection of home buyers.
12. Annual Meeting of the Bar Association (05/09), subject: Guarantees in the Law of Sales after the Hefziba Affair

Seminars and Other Forums

Regular lecturer at the Institute of Continuing Legal Education of the Israel Bar Association and at seminars for paralegals.

Participant in discussions of the forum for cooperation between the Supreme Court and academia.

Other Academic Institutions

2005 to present External lecturer, School of Law, Bar-Ilan University

2000 to present External lecturer, Netanya Academic College