

YITZHAK HERZOG, THE FACULTY OF LAW

CURRICULUM VITAE

1990 - 1985 Military Service in the Intelligence Corps and studies at a Hesder Yeshiva
[combined army service and Judaic studies program of the Israeli army]

1990 - 1993 Rabbinical ordination studies

1990 - 1992 Teaching at the Etzion Bloc Regional School and at Jerusalem's Pardes School.

1992 - 1995 Law Studies at the Hebrew University (completed with distinction 14/300)

1995 The Supreme Court, His Honor Justice Z. Tal - pre-internship and internship

1996 Shimron, Molho, Persky law firm - completion of internship and practice of law

1996 Qualification as an Attorney at Law and admission as a member of the Israel Bar Association

1997 Office of the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Education – Legal Adviser

1997 Neeman Commission on Jewish Pluralism - Commission Coordinator

1998-1999 Columbia University, New York, Law School - L.L.M. (completed with Distinction - Stone Scholar)

1999-2004 Columbia University New York, Law School – completes the J.S.D. program

2005 Ono Academic College, the Law Faculty, Lecturer, Faculty Member

2006-2010 Partial or complete leave of absence as a result of severe illness and family-related matters

2010 - 2011 Transplant surgery, recovery, family-related matters improved

2011-2012 Ono Academic College, the Law Faculty, gradual return to part-time employment

Publications during the 2011-2012 period:

On Determining Panels of Constitutional Interpretation, Kiryat Hamishpat IX 211-270 (5771)

The Constitutional Revolution - Textual Analysis, Part 1: The LAOR Case - Invalidation of Statutes Based on Unwritten Principles (under exclusive review in the Kiryat Hamishpat law journal)

On the Tribes and the Names of the Divine Presence - and on the Centrality of the Mandrake Transaction in the Biblical Story (under exclusive review in the Megadim biblical studies journal)

ARTICLES IN ADVANCED STAGES OF WRITING

"The Entrance Key Theory" and the Principle of Equality in Ethnic Nation States

The Jewish- Arab Dispute in the Judgments of the Supreme Court - the Official Languages in Israel as a Test Case

Caught in a False Paradigm - The Tacit Assumptions that Underlie the Counter-Majoritarian Discourse

Constitutional Interpretation – A Comparative Structural Study

ARTICLES IN INITIAL STAGES OF WRITING:

The Constitutional Revolution - Textual Analysis, Part II: Judgment in the LAOR Case and in the Bank Mizrahi Case – The Constitutional Interpreter

Book Review: Daphna Barak Erez – The Administrative Law

An Essay on Legal Positivism